WORKSHOP ON CREATING INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT PLANS (IDPs)

VIRTUAL CLASSROOM DATES

JULY 22, 23 & 24

Wednesday, Thursday & Friday

05:00 to 07:30 pm (2.5 hours)

How can organizations ensure that every employee has a clear learning agenda?

How does one ensure continuous learning and upgradation of competencies?

Should one focus more on strengths or on ones areas of improvement?

Which competencies are easy to change and which competencies require more effort?

What concrete actions can one take to prepare for potential roles that may emerge in the future?

Individual Development Plans (IDP) are the answer to all these questions. IDPs assist employees to become more Self-aware and focus on their overall growth keeping immediate as well as future needs in mind.

WHAT IS AN IDP?

- An IDP is a concise document that outlines the vision behind an employee's development goal and includes specific actions to capitalize on the employees strengths and ways to work around the areas of improvement
- An IDP may be crafted out keeping the current role or likely future role in mind or it could be a combination of both
- It is finalized after a "Development Dialogue" between the employee and the manager
- A well thought out IDP can also help in career progression
